

6516206441.txt

All I listen to is XM Radio. My family has XM in both our cars, our Toy Hauler and at home. We rarely listen to anything else. Why in the world would the FCC try to prevent us from receiving traffic and weather info??? It just doesn't make sense. I pay each for XM so I don't have to listen to commercials. I do want to hear about weather and traffic.